A few terms & requests ...

- The copy deadline is 15th of each month, apart from the January edition, when the deadline date is the 8th

We must be strict on this to ensure that we go to print on time.

- Whilst you are advertising, we will issue a 'round-robin' email each month as a request to confirm advertising intentions for the following month. We respectfully request that you respond to let us know either way. We do acknowledge all emails so that you can be sure your request has been noted. Many advertisers instruct us to renew the advert each month unless notified otherwise. Please let us know if you would like us to do that - we will make a note on your record and will not need a response from you at all unless you have any changes to make or wish to cancel.
- What's On guide - This is very popular and whilst we are happy to list free of charge charity events, markets etc, we do ask for a small charge of 4€ per 50 words to help cover costs if you wish to include your own events such as curry nights, music nights, craft fairs etc.
